++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cold with sunny spells and scattered wintry showers.

Today:
Frosty start for many areas, with ice on untreated surfaces. Any freezing fog patches, or areas of low cloud, will gradually lift and break leaving sunny spells. Then scattered wintry showers arrive this afternoon, falling as hail, sleet or snow. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Tonight:
Residual wintry showers will fade away, and most places will become clear with a sharp frost developing and perhaps some patchy freezing fog. Icy stretches will form on untreated surfaces. Minimum temperature -5 deg C (23 deg F).

Sunday:
Frosty start, with patchy freezing fog slowly clearing. Sunny spells initially but then increasing cloud, with a chance of outbreaks of sleet or snow arriving across western and southern areas. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Monday and Tuesday very frosty starts and patchy freezing fog slowly clearing, then sunny spells for Monday but becoming cloudy through Tuesday. Staying cold. Wednesday milder and cloudy, overnight rain.
